BEAUTIFUL CHILDREN'S PARTY

Wednesday afternoon at the home of their parents on Lime street, Master Lagrange Sistrunk and Miss Virginia Sistrunk, the two lovely children of Mr. and Mrs. Simeon T. Sistrunk, entertained seventy-five of their friends at a beautiful Easter party. The day promised to be a wet and miserable one but in the afternoon the sun came out drying off the lawn and letting each little guest arrive without getting wet.

The happy host and hostess greeted their guests on the front veranda assisted by their mother and their aunt, Miss Atkinson. Miss Virginia wore a hand-embroidered white linen dress and with pink bows in her hair and pink sash never looked sweeter.

The entire lower floor and broad verandas were banked with vines and all kinds of flowers sent in by friends. Byrd Wartmann, their music teacher, and Miss Bettie Wray Melver, served a delicious fruit lemonade from a prettily decorated table at one end of the veranda. Misses Ethel Robinson, their Sunday school teacher, May Turnley and Ettie Carn, their teachers at school, and Mrs. W. H. Powers and Miss Esther Weathers were present and helped to make the afternoon pleasant. Numerous games were indulged in both in and out of the house. The matching of paper Easter eggs proved very interesting, especially for Miss Myrtle Whitfield and Mr. Julius Brown, who excelled all others in completing the most eggs. The prizes were a goose and a duck stuffed. A peanut walk to and from the front gate was another contest. Similar games made the afternoon pass in a hurry.

Strawberry ice cream and cake were served in the dining room which had been made unusually attractive. The dining table was centered with a tall vase filled with an exquisite cluster of Easter lilies placed on a red-flecked cloth with Easter chicks and circled with a wreath of ivy. Placed also, on the table, were dainty and pretty Easter souvenirs filled with marshmallow chickens, one for each guest.

After leaving the dining room all were asked out on the lawn to hunt for candied Easter eggs. In a cage near the front gate two white rabbits were placed, which delighted each little tot. The afternoon as the guests of Master Lagrange and Miss Virginia Sistrunk was one of the most delightful ones possible and their beautiful Easter party, enjoyed by their many guests, will long be remembered.

MRS. PYLES GIVES A DINNER

Yesterday Mrs. Samuel Pyles, who is universally noted for being an ideal hostess, gave a dinner at her beautiful country home, five miles south of town, to five of her married friends, who were Mrs. B. W. Mims, Mrs. E. L. Carney, Mrs. Frances Howse, Mrs. J. C. B. Koonce and Mrs. Edward Hider.

The party left town about 10:30 in Mrs. Hider's lovely car and the trip out, which is one of Ocala's prettiest driveways, was made in a very short time.

The dinner consisted of six courses each of which was thoroughly enjoyed and the day spent as the guests of Mrs. Pyles will always be a pleasant thought.

COVERS DENSELY, LOOKS LIKE ENAMEL

"In all my experience as a painter, I have never seen the equal of Davis 100 Per Cent Pure Paint. It will cover more surface, and cover it better, than anything I have ever used. Its finished appearance looks like enamel." C. E. Mason, M. P. Marshall, Texas.

HURRAH FOR PURE PAINT!
Davis 100 per cent Pure Paint will stand the test of the most rigid Pure Paint Law. For sale by the Marion Hardware Co., Ocala, Fla.

The diminutive street sweeper that has been used a rest was at work again this morning and doing well. When the chairman of the street committee was asked about the sweeper, he did not know whether the city would keep it or not, as the price asked for it seemed too much, $30.

ABOUT CANDY

Lots of candy has for its best endorsement, "tasty color and pretty form"—nothing more. This is particularly true of most twenty and thirty-cent grades.

Neither color or form signifies purity. So, be guarded! Buy where you know you are getting absolutely pure as well as good looking candy.

Ours is a safe store. You've known it for years and years. You've never yet gotten an impure piece of candy here. You never will as long as you buy no matter how little.

Hayler's—always fresh. "Uncle Sam" charges but 1c. an ounce to carry it anywhere. A 1 to 5-pound box goes by express anywhere in United States for 25 cents.

MISS MIXON GIVES A BEAUTIFUL RECEPTION

Two weeks ago Miss Anna Mixon issued invitations to one hundred and fifty of her friends to a reception which she would give on the afternoon of April the fifteenth in honor of her visitor, Miss McGuire of Smithport, Pennsylvania. The anticipated afternoon to be spent with one of Ocala's most popular young ladies arrived today, and will long be remembered as being one of the most delightful of the entire gas season.

Miss Mixon's home, which is conveniently arranged for entertaining, was a bower of loveliness, made so by the artistic tastes of friends. The color motif was pink and white with quantities of green blended in. All the lights were shaded with pink tissue paper which cast a mellow glow over the beautifully gowned ladies and the decorations. Pink and white roses were used advantageously in every nook and wherever a vase could be placed.

Mrs. Simeon T. Sistrunk, in her usual happy fashion, greeted the guests as they arrived and ushered them to the cozy corner screened off on the veranda, where the popular girls, Misses Carrie Williams and Pauline Sullivan in dainty dresses of white and pink, served a very refreshing acid punch from a bowl buried in a mass of pink sweet peas and white verbenas. Mrs. Sistrunk wore a blue tulle dress trimmed in velvet and lace.

Receiving in the hall were Mrs. Phillips, the hostess's mother, Mrs. B. W. Mims, of Kentucky, and Mrs. E. L. Carney. The stairway in the hall was entwined with vines and the doors were draped also with vines. Introducing to the receiving line were Mrs. John Taylor and Mrs. Clarence Camp.

In the dining room, the loveliest place of all, was the receiving line consisting of the hostess and the honoree. Miss Mixon never looked prettier than she did this afternoon as she gave each guest a most cordial greeting. Her dress was silk tulle made over pink taffeta. Miss McGuire, who has won so many friends while in Ocala and has been the recipient of much social attention, wore a white lace over pink taffeta.

In the back parlor Misses Mamie Wilcox, of Gainesville, Ida Fort, of Adams, Tenn., Winnifred Rapalji, of Plainfield, N. J., Frances Anderson, Ophelia Sawtelle and Mrs. Jack Camp composed a bevy of beautiful girls and one attractive young matron. Miss Mary Phillips, the talented young daughter of the house, played a carefully selected program on the piano also in this room during the entire afternoon which brought forth praises from many of the best musicians.

Mrs. Harvey Clark, this winter's popular bride, showed the guests into the dining room, where Misses Lillian Thagard, Grace Hatchell, Alice Bullock, Bettie Wray Melver and Annie Atkinson, a bevy of attractive and popular girls, passed cherry and nut ice cream, cake, pink and white mints and salted almonds. The dining table was covered with an exquisite white tulle cloth and was centered with a glass vase filled with gorgeous pink hot house roses. Around the border of the table was a wreath of smilax. From each of the two chandeliers were two pink streamers, circled with smilax and caught to the table. On the handsome sideboard were vases of flowers.

Going out of the dining room the guests spent a few minutes very enjoyably chatting with Mrs. J. D. Robertson, Mrs. Robert Blake and Mrs. Charlie Mathews.

Miss Mixon's reception was a complete social success and one of the prettiest given this season.

LOVELY BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Horne gave their little son, Norman, a party yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock in honor of his eighth birthday. The party was called a "Humpty Dumpty" birthday party and about forty of the little folks of the city gathered on the beautiful lawn at the Horne residence on Oklawaha avenue where they passed one of the most pleasant afternoons of their young lives in playing the new and fascinating game of Humpty Dumpty and other older ones, but ever dear to the hearts of the children.

The Humpty Dumpty game, the first one played, was conducted as follows: Long-handled wooden spoons were provided, tied with ribbons and matched in pairs. Two eggs were also prepared matched in color of the two spoons. The children all drew spoons, then found their partners by the corresponding spoon and together began to look for the eggs that matched the ribbons on the spoons. The eggs were hidden all about the lawn and in the flower beds. The object was to roll the eggs to the baskets placed on the walks, the first couple finding and rolling their eggs to the baskets winning the prizes, beautiful big Easter eggs, that opened and were filled with pretty things. The first prizes were won by Agnes Burford and Virginia Beckham and the second prizes by Lillian Smith and Nellie Beckham.

In the dining room, which was beautifully decorated in flowers and evergreens, the large dining table was decorated in white and gold and the two immense birthday cakes each held eight candles. The children stood around the table and were helped to the good things, cake, ice cream and candies.

Those who assisted Mrs. Horne in entertaining her little guests were Mrs. Wm. M. Richey, Mrs. W. A. Knight, Mrs. F. B. Beckham, Mrs. Thomas Sexton, Mrs. R. R. Carroll, Miss Freddie Poy, Miss Lillian Thagard, Miss Mary Gates.

The children present to celebrate Master Norman's birthday were Tommie and Cranford, Standley, Nellie, Theo and Virginia Beckham, William Richey, Frederic Wines, Frank Cron, Alice, Clifton and Tom Sexton, Floyd and Carl Coleman, Lillian Clarkson, Margaret Edwards, Agnes Burford, Robert and James Chace, Robert and Charles White, Louise Rentz, Charlie and Marion Savage, Rose Wolfe, Edward Chizal, Margie Eagleton, Merris Carroll, Marshal Carn, Holly Marsh, Sidney Terry, Cornelia Dodier, Ned and Lillian Smith, Sam Knight.

Each child upon leaving was given a pretty souvenir of the party, also taking their wooden spoons with them. The little people had a splendid time and will remember the pleasant afternoon spent with Master Norman for a long time.

Mr. Maxwell, proprietor of the Florida House, seeing the notice in the Star some time ago that Mr. Johnson of Daytona, would open a livery business here and employ only white help, immediately wrote to Mr. Johnson, giving him dates, and consequently now has Mr. Johnson and ten of his men for boarders.

MOODY-MULLER

Last night at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. B. Muller, 405 East Duval street, Jacksonville, Miss Ethel Muller and Mr. Maxey Dell Moody, formerly of this city, but now of Jacksonville, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony.

Father Maher, of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, performed the impressive ceremony. The bride was given away by her brother, Mrs. G. A. Muller, and the maid of honor was Miss Ruth Leite. Mr. Moody had as his best man Mr. S. C. Leigh, of Jacksonville.

After greeting the guests and receiving the congratulations of their many friends, Mr. and Mrs. Moody left last night for Washington, D. C., where they will spend a two weeks' honeymoon. On their return to Jacksonville they will make their home with Mrs. Muller, Mrs. Moody being the only daughter.

Mr. Moody, who was reared in this city and the son of the late Dr. Moody and Mrs. Moody, is a young man of good business ability and it is to be congratulated upon winning so lovely a bride.

The presents received were handsome and evinced the love borne for them by their friends.

Mrs. John W. Dodge and children have returned to their home in Jacksonville after a very delightful visit to Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Dodge and Mrs. Mary Dodge Maddox at the Presbyterian manse. Mrs. Dodge has made many friends here by her charming manner, who will always be delighted to have her return.

Rev. W. H. Dodge and Mr. Arch McIntosh leave tomorrow for Palatka to attend a meeting of the Presbytery, which will convene in that city.

Mrs. Charlie Shaw has packed and moved her household goods to Zuber, where her husband accepted a position several weeks ago. Miss Affleck, who has made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Shaw, has taken rooms at the Arms House.

Mrs. F. B. Stringfellow and handsome little sons of Gainesville, arrived in Ocala yesterday to visit Mrs. Stringfellow's mother, Mrs. D. C. Edwards.

The gentleman from the huckleberry districts who got into a scrape with a colored woman at the Florida House and subsequently in limbo, did not appear before the mayor today and therefore forfeited his $300 bond.

The fishing party that went over to Lake Bryant, flags flying and streamers floating as they began their journey, returned Tuesday night considerably depressed by the all prevailing moisture that seriously interfered with their pleasure and fish catching.

The National Amusement company will make a week of amusement in Ocala week after next, on the lot owned by Melver & MacKay opposite the old fountain building. A. T. Stewart, representing the company, was here today to make the final arrangements. This week the company is showing at Tarpon Springs, and next week at Dunnellon.

Judge Bell went down to Dunnellon this morning to hold a preliminary trial in the Roberts brothers' case accused of being implicated in the robberies recently perpetrated in the Phosphate City.

Poley's Honey and Tar is a safeguard against serious results from spring colds which inflame the lungs and develop into pneumonia. Avoid counterfeits by insisting upon having the genuine Poley's Honey and Tar, which contains no harmful drugs. Sold by all druggists.
